BOROUGH MAY ASK PASSAGE OF ACT TO CLEAR TITLES

Ordinance Committee of Council To Investigate

GOVERNMENT FINDS FLAW

Discovers Nearly All Local Real Estate is Encumbered.

Charleroi borough may seek some special legislation for itself at the forthcoming session of the Legislature to have the real estate title to nearly all the property in the boro gh clear ed Council last night at an adjourned meeting took the first move by empowering the ordinance committee to investigate the matter.

It will be remembered that when the United States government was negotiating for the purchase of property at the corner of Fallowfield avenue and Seventh street, it u earched the fact that the Charleroi property titles were not clear, owing to a judgment never having been statisfied on a tract by the original owners of the land now occupied by Charleroi. Attorney D. M. McCloskey succeeded in clearing the title satisfactory to the government for the six lots they purchased, but that act did not free other encumbered property within the borough limits.

Attorney McCloskey, who is the borough solicitor, stated this morning that in his opinion before the titles of all the encumbered real estate could be cleared an enhabling act would have to be passed. Accordngly the investigation by the ordinance committee may be introductory to the forming of a bill to be presented to the Legislature at the earliest possible date.

Charles O. Frye, supervisor of census of the Twetnty fourth district, composed of the counties of Washington, Beaver, Lawrence and Butler counties, has received the following letter from E. Dana Durand, director of the Bureau of Census at Washington, D. C.

"The official vote count of your district has been completed, and the population is 364,754. This of course is subject to minor corrections.

"Your work is now completed, and accordingly your official connection with the Census Bureau is hereby terminated. It is possible, however, that matters may arise which will necessitate some little correspondence between yourself and this office.

"I desire at this time to congratulate you upon the successful conduct of your duties as supervisor of census. These duties have been performed to the satisfaction of this office and to your owh credit. Your work has been arduous and difficult and the results clearly show the wisdom of your selection as supervisor.

"I desire also to thank you for the courteous and willing manner in which you have responded to all requests and instructions from this office. I believe that when the results of your work are fully known to the people of your district you will receive their general approval.

Very respectfully,
E Dana Durand.

These entered into the proper spirit of the work, and all performed their duties faithfully and well. Mr. Frye was well pleased with the efficiency and personnel of his numerators.

POLE TAX "JUST RIGHT" IN OPINION OF COUNCIL

Bell Telephone Company's Scheme for Cutting Down Expenses Balked by Action of City Fathers

CITIZENS TO MEET ON TREE QUESTION

According to the C. D. and P. Telephone company 50 cents of a poll tax is too much to pay in Charleroi, and in an effort to continue a plan for the cutting down of expenses, presented a communication to council last night, asking for a reduction. Council couldn't look at the matter in the same light, and Borough Clerk Ira L. Nickeson was instructed to notify the company that the 50 cents per pole was the set price and 50 cents it would be. The court has ruled in Washington county that 50 cents is reasonable.

All members of council were present last night with the exception of Dr A. O Davis and O—C. Linn, who were unavoidably detained.

Preliminary arrangements were made following the reading of a communication from the State Forestry Department, which will later be published, for a meeting of citizens with council on January 19. On this date the shade tree question will be taken up. It is understood that a fast growing tree can be purchased at a nominal price when bought in bulk and this matter will be investigated

Owing to the absence from town during the day time of the borough electrician, Robert Fram, council decided that a change was best, and elected George Leith to take Fram's place at the end of this month.

Investigating Committees Are Appointed

GOOD ROADS MOVEMENT

Improved Highway Needed—Free Bridge Matter Receives Impetus.

Three important committees were appointed by the Charleroi Business Men's Association at their regular meeting held in their rooms in the Kirk and Clark building last night. Statistics of Charleroi, which are to be used in future development of the town are to be compiled; a movement is to be made toward a free bridge connecting Monessen and Charleroi, and the county commissioners are to be met and urged to improve the road leading from the Lincoln avenue extension to Bentleyville.

The committee appointed to gather statistics of the borough consists of J. K. Johnston, E. C. Niver, T. P. Sloan, R H. Rush and Walter Byerly. The duties of this committee will be to gather data of valuation, the number of vacant lots, taxation, insurance, freight tariffs, labor conditions and such other information as may be useful in planning development for the town.

On a committee to investigate the fessibility of a plan to free the Monessen-Charleroi bridge was appointed Hugh E Fergus, C. O Frye and Frank Blythe.

Kerfoot W. Daly, T. P. Sloan and Nathan Greenberg were named to compose a good roads committee. It will be the duty of this committee to confer with the county commissioners and urge that among the highways to be improved, that the Charleroi-Bentleyville road be one. This road is in particularly bad condition especially in the winter time. Some years ago a part of the road was built, extending three miles out.

Four new members were received into the association last night. In the absence of the president, John H. Bowers, who is ill, Vice President J. B. Schafer, occupied the chair.

All Can Help

The Charleroi Buisness Men's Association has appointed a publicity committee whose business it is to advertise and boom the town with a view of attracting more industrial enterprises as well as inducing capital to invest in the promotion of the material interests of the "Magic City." This is an excellent move, and the personnel of the committee is a guarantee that it will make an honest effort to accomplish its mission.

There are others, however who can materially aid in conveying the impression abroad that Charleroi is a live town and one that is worth while. These are the business men who do not advertise or make any effort to attract outside attention to their lines of trade. In every town the newspaper is the index of the standing and progressiveness of its business people. Anyone with an enterprise or a scheme to promote first looks over the newspapers of a town to see if it is worth while. The fake advertising scheme promoter finds a fertile field for his activities in towns where only two or three leading firms advertise regularly in the newspapers; he passes up the towns where all the business people advertise.

In nearly every town the newspapers indicate the business firms that are really progressive and are doing the bulk of the business in their lines. There are towns, however, where this condition is not revealed at a glance, as all the business people advertise. These are the snappy, uptodate towns that have a place on all the commercial and industrial maps of prospective investors and those who are looking for localities for industrial enterprises. Some of the notable towns in this respect are Connellsville Washington, Uniontown and New Castle. By looking at the newspaper advertisements in these towns a stranger could not pick out the stores that are taking the lead in their respective lines of trade. These are the towns that the railroad companies and big industrial corporations have on their lists to hand out to inquirers for possible manufacturing locations and investments. The towns where the merchants do not advertise or only are always inviting competition in their lines, by leaving their shelves open for outside hustlers to come in.

The merchant who advertises is not only helping himself but is also promoting his town. Every community is known by its business standing and methods, and a town of hustling merchants is the one that attracts outside attention.

No Personal Liberty

If people won't be clean and sanitary, they can be made to observe the laws and regulations which both Nature and society imposes. This has happened at Monessen, where the health board has served notice of eviction on two families whose living quarters and sanitary surroundings are a menace to both themselves and the community. Due notice having been served these tenants to improve their conditions, and a failure to comply, has resulted in summary action on the part of the health board.

By this action it will be seen that there are restrictions and limitations upon the individual which claims of person alliberty will not cover. No individual has a right to do as he pleases when his conduct interferes with the rights of others or society at large. It is in exactly cases of this kind that Prohibitionists get their precedents and arguments for advocating the probition of the liquor traffic. So far as absolute personal liberty goes, there is none in organized society. Every individual is free up to a certain point to do as he pleases and what he will with his own, but both his conduct and proprietary rights are limited and restricted. These restrictions and limitations are necessary for the protection and preservation of society, and absolute personal liberty is only the dream of theorists.

The trouble with most reformers is that they try to reform too many things before getting a half hitch at one.

If Charleroi gets anything any more, the Washington Observer puts its best writer to work writing all the mean things he can in a short space about the "Magic City." It's the only opportunity E. F. Acheson has of getting back.

WASHINGTON BAKERS RAISING A "HOLLER"

Outside Dealers Enjoying Good Business at Their Expense.

A number of bakers over at the county seat who have joined and contributed to the board of trade are making a "holler" over the outside trade in their product by Washington consumers. It is stated that one Pittsburg firm runs two bakery wagons in Washington and takes out of the town over $30,000 a year. The bakers have presented the matter to the secretary of the board of trade who will likely bring the grievance up for action at the next meeting.

WILL CARE FOR WIRES

Meeting of West Penn Officials With Factory Men

Representatives of the West Penn Electric company conferred with representatives of the Macbeth-Evans Glass company and a committee from council conferred yesterday afternoon at the borough building on the matter of taking care of the wires of the West Penn company now strung over the recently sold portion of Eighth street and leading across the river The Electric company representatives stated that it would be satisfactory to them if the wires were elevated over the proposed addition of the Macbeth Evans plant, and C. R. Perigren, business manager of the copmany, argeed to investiagte the feasibility of the plan.

The West Penn company has all their wires to and from Charleroi leading across the river at Eighth street, When the Macbeth-Evans Glass company began negotiating for the portion of Eighth street leading to the river they brought up the question of the disposal of their wires. There is no doubt but what everything can be satisfactorily arranged.

KIDNAPING VOTERS.

Once a Regular Feature of Political Warfare In England.

In England a generation or two ago kidnaping was a regularly recognized feature of political warfare. On the eve of an election especially men of influence on either side would mysteriously vanish to reappear later with strange tales of forcible seizures, mad races across country in post chaises driven by yelling postilions, followed by longer or shorter terms of gilded imprisonment in great mansions, where they were wined and dined in sumptuous style and treated right royally in every way, only their liberty being denied them.

Quite humble voters, too, were forcibly abducted, but these did not always fare quite so well. Thus one victim made complaint before a magistrate that he had been decoyed from his house by a ruse and kept shut up in a coal hole for three days.

Wholesale kidnaping of voters in batches, too, was not unknown, the process being rendered easier by the custom of candidates paying the traveling expenses of their electors to and from the polling places.

For instance, at a certain Newcastle election a whole shipload of freemen of the borough, dispatched from London by sea, were taken by the captain who had been heavily bribed to Ostend and there left stranded

During the same contest, too, and under similar circumstances a number of Berwick electors who happened to reside in London were dumped down in Norway, and a group of thirty Ipswich voters found themselves on the day of the polls reeling their heels upon the quay at Rotterdam.—Pearson's Weekly

The Tombigbee.

"Do you know the origin of the name of the Tombigbee river?" asked the well informed man. "Well," he went on, "it is Choctaw, every syllable, only the word is not "Tombigbee;" it is 'Tom-bi Ik-bi,' two words, the 'I' being short in each instance. Long ago Choctaws inhabited the section now embraced within the states of Mississippi and Alabama and traversed by the stream that song was about. Nearly a century ago a white man—a carpenter—came among the Indians. He lived on the banks of the stream and among other things made rude coffins for burials. Indians at that time "buried" their dead upon an arbor supported by poles, but they gradually came to the white man's custom of burying in earth and went to the white man carpenter to get their boxes. From this incident, I am told, the stream received its name, 'Tom-bi' meaning box and 'Ik-bi' meaning make or maker, only they added the word 'bok,' which signifies river or creek, so, literally translated, the combination means 'the river where lives the man that makes boxes.' Time as well as the Anglo-Saxon disposition to round corners in pronunciation Anglicized 'Tom-bi Ik-bi' into 'Tombigbee.'—Wichita Eagle.

FRANK RIVA, CHARLEROI, PA.

FAMOUS NOVELISTS.

What Some of Them Did Before They Took to Writing.

Among those novelists who studied law we have Fielding, Scott, Charles Reade, Wilkie Collins, Blackmore, Washington Irving, George Meredith, Robert Grant, Henry James, Anthony Hope, Rider Haggard and Owen Wister. Journalism, which Mr. Kipling once defined as the one legitimate branch of the profession, is represented by Dickens, David Christie Murray, William Black, J. M. Barrie, Marion Crawford, George W. Cable Stephen Crane, George Barr McCutcheon, Frank Norris, Richard Harding Davis and David Graham Phillips. The navy and merchant marine have given us Smollett, Captain Marryat, Fenimore Cooper, Clark Russell, Joseph Conrad and Morgan Robertson. Artists and architects include Thackeray, Du Maurier, Hopkinson Smith, Robert Chambers, Thomas Hardy and William J. Locke. Medicine and theology are not so well represented. Under the former head we to call for the moment only Smollett (naval surgeon), Holmes, S. Weir Mitchell and Sir Arthur Conan Doyle under the latter, Sterne, Charles Kingsley, Henry van Dyke, Edward Everett Hale, Ian Maclaren, Ralph Connor and Thomas Dixon. College professors who have either given up their chairs to become novelists or have found time for occasional novels in the midst of their other duties are Sir Walter Besant, Robert Herrick and Brander Matthews.—Bookman.

A BLOOD TAX.

Payment by a French Town to Spain For an Ancient Crime.

Seven hundred years ago some shepherds of the valley of Roncal, in Navarre, were murdered by shepherds of the valley of Bareton, in Bearn, the crime taking place on the high pasture lands of Arlas, in the Pyrenees. It would have been difficult to bring the murderers individually to justice, and the Spaniards were preparing to make war upon the valley from which the French murderers had come when the French villages proposed that peace be maintained at the price of a yearly tax or tribute, to endure for all time, and this proposition was accepted.

The payment of this blood tax—originally three white mares, but later three cows of a particular breed and color—has been made ever since, the custom (it is nothing more) having survived even the great wars in which both France and Spain have engaged and the storm of the French revolution.

Yearly the representative men of the two valleys meet on the frontier at a certain stone remote from any town and go through the ceremony of presenting and receiving the cattle. The order of procedure, which is elaborate and impressive, is fixed by a document bearing the date 1375, though the tax was paid a hundred years prior to that time. The records of each yearly meeting and payment are duly attested and deposited in the archives of the Roncalais.—New York Tribune.

The Sanity of Paris.

The French live within their means and by a sense of economy wholly unknown to us manage to save and retire to enjoy whatever fortune has stored up for them, says F. Berkeley Smith in Success Magazine. To them France is sufficient. They voyage rarely and gamble less. The spendthrift or the man who plunges on the bourse, the races and the gaming table is regarded by the masses in the light of a rogue and a fool. The Parisians work hard enough for their leisure, but they never eliminate it nor allow their work to encroach upon their traditional daily vacation, as luncheon, the aperitif hour, dinner and fete days. They work, not to amass millions and die in harness, but to save enough to give their daughter her dot, without which she may never marry; start their son in his chosen trade and have enough income left to retire before they are too old to enjoy their freedom.

Old and Modern Customs.

Palm Sunday in certain places is called "Fig Sunday" from the custom of eating figs on this day, as snapdragons on Christmas eve, plum pudding on Christmas day, oranges and barley sugar on St. Valentine's eve, pancakes on Shrove Tuesday, salt codfish on Ash Wednesday, frumenty on "Mothering Sunday" (mid-Lent), cross buns on Good Friday, gooseberry tart on Whitsunday, goose on Michaelmas day, nuts on Allhallows, and so on.—New York American.

Leading the Leader.

A very small boy was trying to lead a big St. Bernard dog up the road.

"Where are you going to take the dog, my little man?" inquired a passer-by.

"I—I'm going to see where—where he wants to go first," was the breathless reply.—Argonaut.

An Exceptional Case.

"What are you doing these days?"

"Playing the horses."

"No money in that."

"Yes, there is. I get $2 a night for imitating hoof beats in a melodrama."—Washington Herald.

Her Bad Habit.

"I don't like that woman."

"Why not?"

"She's the woman who is all the time teaching my wife a new way of serving up cold meat."—Detroit Free Press.

Integrity without knowledge is weak and useless, and knowledge without integrity is dangerous and dreadful.—Johnson.

GERMS IN HER SYSTEM

Every Woman Should Read This Advice and the Generous Offer That Goes With It

The number of diseases peculiar to women is such that we believe this space would hardly contain a mere mention of their names, and it is a fact that most of these diseases are of a catarrhal nature. A woman cannot be well if there is a trace of catarrh in her system.

Some women think there is no help for them. We positively declare this to be a mistaken idea. We are so sure of this that we offer to supply medicine absolutely free of all cost in every instance where it fails to give satisfaction, or does not substantiate our claims With this understanding, no woman should hesitate to believe our honesty of purpose, or hesitate to put our claims to a test

There is only one way to overcome catarrh. That way is through the blood. You may use all the snuffs, douches or like remedies for years without getting more than temporary relief at best. Catarrh in general is a diseased condition of the system that shows locally most frqeuently in discharges from mucus membranes Local treatment should be assisted by internal treatment for the general diseased condition if a complete cure is to be reached. That internal treatment should be scientifically devised and faithfully administered

Rexall Mucu-Tone is scientifically prepared from the prescription of an eminent physician who for thirty years made catarrh his specialty. This remedy is admirably adapted to the treatment of the catarrhal ailments of women. It purifies and enriches the blood, tends to stop mucus-discharges, aids in removing impurities from the system, sooths, heals and strentghens the mucus tissues, and brings about a feeling of health and strength.

We want you to try Rexall Mucu Tone on our guarantee. If you are not benefitted, or for any reason not satisfied, simply tell us and we will hand back your money. Rexall Mucu Tone comes in two sizes, 50 cents and $1.00. Remember, you can obtain Rexall Remedies only at—The Rexall Store.

EMOTIONAL DRAMA IS "HUMAN HEARTS

So strong an impresison did "Human Hearts" make upon a prominent clergyman in New York, that he wrote to the gentleman inpersonating "Tom Logan," vigorouusly endorsing the play and informing him of his intention of trotting all the orphans of a local asylum out to see it at his own expense. And he did it.

"You cannot conceive" said Manager Reno "of the appreciation of those youngsters at the change of the sermon thus afforded them unless you had listened to the gallery the day they attended." "With the 'gods' present," he continued, "as often as I have myself enjoyed sitting through it, it was as enjoyable as a box of monkeys sprinkled over with tears. Quite often since, have city schools whose principals were aware of the good merit in the play, been given half a holiday, that the youngsters might enjoy a matinee. And what outspoken critics the tots have been. You can't get a favorable criticism, or a padded eulogy for love or money from a juvenile. You must give him the goods, or he denounces you broadcast, and I am really grateful to the tots of America for their appreciation of what all now agree to be one of the best American plays."

"Human Hearts" comes to the Coyle Theatre, Thursday, January 12.

Ordinance Committee of Council To Investigate

GOVERNMENT FINDS FLAW

Discovers Nearly All Local Real Estate is Encumbered.

Charleroi borough may seek some special legislation for itself at the forthcoming session of the Legislature to have the real estate title to nearly all the property in the boro gh clear ed Council last night at an adjourned meeting took the first move by empowering the ordinance committee to investigate the matter.

It will be remembered that when the United States government was negotiating for the purchase of property at the corner of Fallowfield ave nue and Seventh street, it u earthed the fact that the Charleroi property titles were not clear, owing to a judgment never having been statisfied on a tract by the original owners of the land now occupied by Charleroi. Attorney D. M. McCloskey succeeded in clearing the title satisfactory to the government for the six lots they purchased, but that act did not free other encumbered property within the borough limits.

Attorney McCloskey, who is the borough solicitor, stated this morning that in his opinion before the titles of all the encumbered real estate could be cleared an enbabling act would have to be passed. Accordngly the investigation by the ordinance committee may be introductory to the forming of a bill to be presented to the Legislature at the earliest possible date.

WORK WAS WELL DONE

Census Supervisor C. O. Frye Receives Recognition

COMPLIMENTED BY DURAND

Census Director Says Much Credit is Due Local Man for Efficient Work

Charles O. Frye, supervisor of census of the Twetnty fourth district, composed of the counties of Washington, Beaver, Lawrence and Butler counties, has received the following letter from E. Dana Durand, director of the Bureau of Census at Washington, D. C.

"The official vote count of your district has been completed, and the population is 364,754. This of course is subject to minor corrections.

"Your work is now completed, and accordingly your official connection with the Census Bureau is hereby terminated. It is possible, however, that matters may arise which will necessitate some little correspondence between yourself and this office.

"I desire at this time to congratulate you upon the successful conduct of your duties as supervisor of census. These duties have been performed to the satisfaction of this office and to your own credit. Your work has been arduous and difficult and the results clearly show the wisdom of your selection as supervisor.

"I desire also to thank you for the courteous and willing manner in which you have responded to all requests and instructions from this office. I believe that when the results of your work are fully known to the people of your district you will receive their general approval.

Very respectfully,
E. Dana Durand.

Mr. Frye states that his work was very- materialy facilitated by the efficient corps of enumerators selected throughout the district As these were chosen by a competitive examination, a highly intelligent corps of assistants and workers was the result. These entered into the proper spirit of the work, and all performed their duties faithfully and well. Mr. Frye was well pleased with the efficiency and personnel of his numerators.

YOUNG WOMAN VICTIM OF OPEN GRATE DIES AT A CITY HOSPITAL

Skirts Become Ignited as Mrs. Oesterle Stand With Her Back Towards the Fire Others Are Burned

Harry Hepler, the well known Fallowfield avenue insurance man yesterday received word of the death of his sister, Mrs. Jessie Olive Hepler Oesterle, 22 years old, at the Homepathic Hospital, Pittsburg, from the effect of burns sustained the previous day. The funeral will be held Saturday morning.

Mrs. Oesterle was at the home of her mother, Mrs Margaret Hepler in Pittsburg, Wednesday. When combing her hair standing with her back to an open grate fire, her skirt was ignited. She was enveloped with rugs and the flames extinguished as soon as possible, but not until she had been seriously burned about the body. Mrs. Oesterle was removed at once to the Homeopathic hospital where all possible was done to alleviate her injuies and save her from death. She died at 9 o'clock yesterday morning

In the attempt to smother the flames Mrs Oesterle's mother, Mrs. Margaret Hepler, A. N. Hepler, formerly of Charleroi, and a sister Margaret had their hands badly burned.

Besides the one brother Harry residing in Charleroi, Mrs. William Kaupp, of Third street, survives.

POLE TAX "JUST RIGHT" IN OPINION OF COUNCIL

Bell Telephone Company's Scheme for Cutting Down Expenses Balked by Action of City Fathers

CITIZENS TO MEET ON TREE QUESTION

According to the C.D. and P. Telephone company 50 cents of a poll tax is too much to pay in Charleroi, and in an effort to continue a plan for the cutting down of expenses, presented a communication to council last night, asking for a reduction. Council couldn't look at the matter in the same light, and Borough Clerk Ira L. Nickeson was instructed to notify the company that the 50 cents per pole was the set price and 50 cents it would be. The court has ruled in Washington county that 50 cents is reasonable.

All members of council were present last night with the exception of Dr A. O Davis and O—C. Linn, who were unavoidably detained.

Preliminary arrangements were made following the reading of a communication from the State Forestry Department, which will later be pblished, for a meeting of citizens with council on January 19. On this date the shade tree question will be taken up. It is understood that a fast growing tree can be purchased at a nominal price when bought in bulk and this matter will be investigated.

Owing to the absence from town during the day time of the borough electrician, Robert Fram, council decided that a change was best, and elected George Leith to take Fram's place at the end of this month.

Pentz, presented to the school board last night for the fourth month of school. At the close of the fourth month the enrollment was 1,993 pupils, and the fact that there have been a number of new pupils enrolled since the beginning of the year shows the history making record has been attained.

During the fourth month Truant Officer Gilbert Uptegraft investiagted 187 cases, six of which were of truancy. Investigating Committees Are Appointed

GOOD ROADS MOVEMENT

Improved Highway Needed—Free Bridge Matter Receives Impetus.

Three important committees were appointed by the Charleroi Business Men's Association at their regular meeting held in their rooms in the Kirk and Clark building last night. Statistics of Charleroi, which are to be used in future development of the town are to be compiled; a movement is to be made toward a free bridge connecting Monessen and Charleroi, and the county commissioners are to be met and urged to improve the road leading from the Lincoln avenue extension to Bentleyville.

The committee appointed to gather statistics of the borough consists of J. K. Johnston, E. C. Niver, T. P. Sloan, R H. Rush and Walter Byerly. The duties of this committee will be to gather data of valuation, the number of vacant lots, taxation, insurance, freight tariffs, labor conditions and such other information as may be useful in planning development for the town.

On a committee to investigate the feasibility of a plan to free the Monessen-Charleroi bridge was appointed Hugh E Fergus, C. O. Frye and Frank Blythe.

Kerfoot W. Daly, T. P. Sloan and Nathan Greenberg were named to compose a good roads committee. It will be the duty of this committee to confer with the county commissioners and urge that among the highways to be improved, that the Charleroi-Bentleyville road be one. This road is in particularly bad condition especially in the winter time. Some years ago a part of the road was built, extending three miles out.

Four new members were received into the association last night. In the absence of the president, John H. Bowers, who is ill, Vice President J. B. Schafer, occupied the chair.

The man was cleaning up some rooms over his butcher shop, and it is supposed lit a match and gas escaping from a pipe in the room where he was, ignited causing the explosion. All Can Help

The Charleroi Boisness Men's Association has appointed a publicity committee whose business it is to advertise and boom the town with a view of attracting more industrial enterprises as well as inducing capital to invest in the promotion of the material interests of the "Magic City." This is an excellent move, and the personnel of the committee is a guarantee that it will make an honest effort to accomplish its mission.

There are others, however who can materially aid in conveying the impression abroad that Charleroi is a live town and one that is worth while. These are the business men who do not advertise or make any effort to attract outside attention to their lines of trade. In every town the newspaper is the index of the standing and progressiveness of its business people. Anyone with an enterprise or a scheme to promote first looks over the newspapers of a town to see if it is worth while. The fake advertising scheme promoter finds a fertile field for his activities in towns where only two or three leading firms advertise regularly in the newspapers; he passes up the towns where all the business people advertise.

In nearly every town the newspapers indicate the business firms that are really progressive and are doing the bulk of the business in their lines. There are towns, however, where this condition is not revealed at a glance, as all the business people advertise. These are the snappy, uptodate towns that have a place on all the commercial and industrial maps of prospective investors and those who are looking for localities for industrial enterprises. Some of the notable towns in this respect are Connellsville, Washington, Uniontown and New Castle. By looking at the newspaper advertisements in these towns a stranger could not pick out the stores that are taking the lead in their respective lines of trade. These are the towns that the railroad companies and big industrial corporations have on their lists to hand out to inquirers for possible manufacturing locations and investments. The towns where the merchants do not advertise [illegible] are always inviting competition in their lines, by leaving their [illegible] for outside hustlers to come in.

The merchant who advertises is not only helping himself but is also promoting his town. Every community is known by its business standing and methods, and a town of hustling merchants is the one that attracts outside attention.

No Personal Liberty

If people won't be clean and sanitary, they can be made to observe the laws and regulations which both Nature and society imposes. This has happened at Monessen, where the health board has served notice of eviction on two families whose living quarters and sanitary surroundings are a menace to both themselves and the community. Due notice having been served these tenants to improve their conditions, and a failure to comply, has resulted in summary action on the part of the health board.

By this action it will be seen that there are restrictions and limitations upon the individual which claims of person alliberty will not cover. No individual has a right to do as he pleases when his conduct interferes with the rights of others or society at large. It is in exactly cases of this kind that Prohibitionists get their precedents and arguments for advocating the prohibition of the liquor traffic. So far as absolute personal liberty goes, there is none in organized society. Every individual is free up to a certain point to do as he pleases and what he will with his own, but both his conduct and proprietary rights are limited and restricted. These restrictions and limitations are necessary for the protection and preservation of society, and absolute personal liberty is only the dream of theorists.

But the ascent of its prices

—Philadelphia Inquirer.

When a man wins a bet you know it When he loses you don't.

Even chickens go to make up some towns. Least-wise that's what they do over at Monessen.

"When a woman loves she rejects that which does not fit in with her dreams, finds another attribute to take its place and loves.—Extract from play." Read's like a woman's page, doesn't it?

The trouble with most reformers is that they try to reform too many things before getting a half hitch at one.

If Charleroi gets anything any more, the Washington Observer puts its best writer to work writing all the mean things he can in a short space about the "Magic City." It's the only opportunity E. F. Acheson has of getting back.

WASHINGTON BAKERS RAISING A "HOLLER"

Outside Dealers Enjoying Good Business at Their Expense.

A number of bakers over at the county seat who have joined and contributed to the board of trade are making a "holler" over the outside trade in their product by Washington consumers. It is stated that one Pittsburg firm runs two bakery wagons in Washington and takes out of the town over $30,000 a year. The bakers have presented the matter to the secretary of the board of trade who will likely bring the grievance up for action at the next meeting.

WILL CARE FOR WIRES

Meeting of West Penn Officials With Factory Men

Representatives of the West Penn Electric company conferred with representatives of the Macbeth-Evans Glass company and a committee from council conferred yesterday afternoon at the borough building on the matter of taking care of the wires of the West Penn company now strung over the recently sold portion of Eighth street and leading across the river The Electric company representatives stated that it would be satisfactory to them if the wires were elevated over the proposed addition of the Macbeth-Evans plant, and C. R. Perigren, business manager of the company, agreed to investiagte the feasibility of the plan.

The West Penn company has all their wires to and from Charleroi leading across the river at Eighth street, When the Macbeth-Evans Glass company began negotiating for the portion of Eighth street leading to the river they brought up the question of the disposal of their wires. There is no doubt but what everything can be satisfactorily arranged.

The Poultry Show is one of the principal an most interesting events of the year in Canonsburg. Judge Charles V Jeeler, of Winimac, Ind., will judge the birds and place the awards. That Judge Keeler comes direct to Canonsburg from the great Chicago Poultry Show is evidence of his ability. Y. M. C. A. PLAN ADOPTED BY CLASSES

The Federated Bible classes of Monessen are working on a plan for an organization along the lines of the Y. M. C. A. It is proposed to enlist a membership of 200 with 40 guarantors who will pledge the payment of $50 each to finance the concern. It is also proposed to charge a membership fee of $5 a year to equip a reading room and gymnasium.

KIDNAPING VOTERS.

Once a Regular Feature of Political Warfare in England.

In England a generation or two ago kidnaping was a regularly recognized feature of political warfare. On the eve of an election especially men of influence on either side would mysteriously vanish to reappear later with strange tales of forcible seizures, mad races across country in post chaises driven by yelling postilions, followed by longer or shorter terms of gilded imprisonment in great mansions, where they were wined and dined in sumptuous style and treated right royally in every way, only their liberty being denied them.

Quite humble voters, too, were forcibly abducted, but these did not always fare quite so well. Thus one victim made complaint before a magistrate that he had been decoyed from his house by a ruse and kept shut up in a coal hole for three days.

Wholesale kidnaping of voters in batches, too, was not unknown, the process being rendered easier by the custom of candidates paying the traveling expenses of their electors to and from the polling places.

For instance, at a certain Newcastle election a whole shipload of freemen of the borough, dispatched from London by sea, were taken by the captain—who had been heavily bribed—to Ostend and there left stranded

During the same contest, too, and under similar circumstances a number of Berwick electors who happened to reside in London were dumped down in Norway, and a group of thirty Ipswich voters found themselves on the day of the poll recalling their keels upon the quay at Rotterdam.—Pearson's Weekly

The Tombigbee.

"Do you know the origin of the name of the Tombigbee river?" asked the well informed man. "Well," he went on, "it is Choctaw, every syllable, only the word is not 'Tombigbee;' it is 'Tom-bi Ik-bi,' two words, the 'I' being short in each instance. Long ago Choctaws inhabited the section now embraced within the states of Mississippi and Alabama and traversed by the stream that song was about. Nearly a century ago a white man—a carpenter—came among the Indians. He lived on the banks of the stream and among other things made rude coffins for burials. Indians at that time "buried" their dead upon an arbor supported by poles, but they gradually came to the white man's custom of burying in earth and went to the white man carpenter to get their boxes. From this incident, I am told, the stream received its name. 'Tom-bi' meaning box and 'Ik-bi' meaning make or maker, only they added the word 'bok,' which signifies river or creek, so, literally translated, the combination means 'the river where lives the man that makes boxes.' Time as well as the Anglo-Saxon disposition to round corners in pronunciation Anglicized 'Tom-bi Ik-bi' into 'Tombigbee.'—Wichita Eagle.

FAMOUS NOVELISTS.

What Some of Them Did Before They Took to Writing.

Among those novelists who studied law we have [illegible] Charles Reade, Wilkie Collins, Blackmore Washington Irving, George Meredith Robert Grant, Henry James, Anthony Hope, Rider Haggard and Owen Wister. Journalism, which Mr Kipling once defined as the one legitimate branch of the profession, is represented by Dickens, David Christie Murray, William Black, J. M Barrie, Marion Crawford, George W Cable Stephen Crane, George Barr McCutcheon, Frank Norris, Richard Harding Davis and David Graham Phillips The navy and merchant marine have given us Smollet Captain Marryat, Fenimore Cooper Clark Russell, Joseph Conrad and Morgan Robertson Artists and architects include Thackeray, Du Maurier, Hopkinson Smith, Robert Chambers, Thomas Hardy and William J Locke Medicine and theology are not so well represented Under the former head we to call for the moment only Smollett (naval surgeon) Holmes S Weir Mitchell and Sir Arthur Conan Doyle under the latter Sterne Charles Kingsley, Henry [illegible] Everett Hale, Ian Maclaren, Ralph Connor and Thomas Dixon College professors who have either given up their chairs to become novelists or have found time for occasional novels in the midst of their other duties are Sir Walter Besant, Robert Herrick and Brander Matthews.—Bookman

A BLOOD TAX.

Payment by a French Town to Spain For an Ancient Crime.

Seven hundred years ago some sheep herds of the valley of Roncal, in Navarre, were murdered by shepherds of the valley of Bareton, in Bearn, the crime taking place on the high pasture lands of Atlas, in the Pyrenees. It would have been difficult to bring the murderers individually to justice, and the Spaniards were preparing to make war upon the valley from which the French murderers had come when the French villages proposed that peace be maintained at the price of a yearly tax or tribute to endure for all time, and this proposition was accepted.

The payment of this blood tax—originally three white mares, but later three cows of a particular breed and color—has been made ever since, the custom of it is nothing more having survived even the great wars in which both France and Spain have engaged and the storm of the French revolution

Yearly the representative men of the two valleys meet on the frontier at a certain stone remote from any town and go through the ceremony of presenting and receiving the cattle The order of procedure, which is elaborate and impressive, is fixed by a document bearing the date 1375, though the tax was paid a hundred years prior to that time The records of each yearly meeting and payment are duly attested and deposited in the archives of the Roncalais.—New York Tribune

The Sanity of Paris.

The French live within their means and by a sense of economy wholly unknown to us manage to save and retire to enjoy whatever fortune has stored up for them, says F. Berkeley Smith in Success Magazine To them France is sufficient They voyage rarely and gamble less The spendthrift or the man who plunges on the bourse, the races and the gaming table is regarded by the masses in the light of a rogue and a fool. The Parisians work hard enough for their leisure, but they never eliminate it nor allow their work to encroach upon their traditional daily vacation, as luncheon, the aperitif hour, dinner and fete days. They work, not to amass millions and die in harness, but to save enough to give their daughter her dot, without which she may never marry; start their son in his chosen trade and have enough income left to retire before they are too old to enjoy their freedom.

Old and Modern Customs.

Palm Sunday in certain places is called "Fig Sunday" from the custom of eating figs on this day, as snapdragons on Christmas eve, plum pudding on Christmas day, oranges and barley sugar on St. Valentine's eve, pancakes on Shrove Tuesday, salt codfish on Ash Wednesday, frumenty on "Mothering Sunday" (mid-Lent), cross buns on Good Friday, gooseberry tart on Whitsunday, goose on Michaelmas day, nuts on Allhallows, and so on.—New York American

Leading the Leader.

A very small boy was trying to lead a big St. Bernard dog up the road

"Where are you going to take the dog, my little man?" inquired a passerby.

"I—I'm going to see where—where he wants to go first," was the breathless reply.—Argonaut.

An Exceptional Case.

"What are you doing these days?"

"Playing the horses."

"No money in that."

"Yes, there is. I get $2 a night for imitating hoof beats in a melodrama."—Washington Herald

Her Bad Habit.

"I don't like that woman.

"Why not?"

"She's the woman who is all the time teaching my wife a new way of serving up cold meat."—Detroit Free Press.

Integrity without knowledge is weak and useless, and knowledge without integrity is dangerous and dreadful.—Johnson.

GERMS IN HER SYSTEM

Every Woman Should Read This Advice and the Generous Offer That Goes With It.

The number of diseases peculiar to women is such that we believe this space would hardly contain a mere mention of their names, and it is a fact that most of these diseases are of a catarrhal nature. A woman cannot be well if there is a trace of catarrh in her system.

Some women think there is no help for them. We positively declare this to be a mistaken idea. We are so sure of this that we offer to supply medicine absolutely free of all cost in every instance where it fails to give satisfaction, or does not substantiate our claims. With this understanding, no woman should hesitate to believe our honesty of purpose, or hesitate to put our claims to a test

There is only one way to overcome catarrh. That way is through the blood. You may use all the snuffs, douches or like remedies for years without getting more than temporary relief at best. Catarrh in general is a diseased condition of the system that shows locally most frqeuently in discharges from mucus membranes Local treatment should be assisted by internal treatment for the general diseased condition if a complete cure is to be reached. That internal treatment should be scientifically devised and faithfully administered

Rexall Mucu-Tone is scientifically prepared from the prescription of an eminent physician who for thirty years made catarrh his specialty. This remedy is admirably adapted to the treatment of the catarrhal ailments of women. It purifies and enriches the blood, tends to stop mucus discharges, aids in removing impurities from the system, sooths, heals and strentghens the mucus tissues, and brings about a feeling of health and strength.

We want you to try Rexall Mucu Tone on our guarantee. If you are not benefitted, or for any reason not satisfied, simply tell us and we will hand back your money. Rexall Mucu Tone comes in two sizes, 50 cents and $1.00. Remember, you can obtain Rexall Remedies only at—The Rexall Store.

EMOTIONAL DRAMA IS "HUMAN HEARTS"

So strong an impression did "Human Hearts" make upon a prominent clergyman in New York, that he wrote to the gentleman impersonating "Tom Logan," vigorously endorsing the play and informing him of his intention of trotting all the orphans of a local asylum out to see it at his own expense. And he did it.

"You cannot conceive" said Manager Reno "of the appreciation of those youngsters at the change of the sermon thus afforded them unless you had listened to the gallery the day they attended." "With the 'gods' present," he continued, "as often as I have myself enjoyed sitting through it, it was as enjoyable as a box of monkeys sprinkled over with tears. Quite often since, have city schools whose principals were aware of the good merit in the play, been given half a holiday, that the youngsters might enjoy a matinee. And what outspoken critics the tots have been. You can't get a favorable criticism, or a padded eulogy for love or money from a juvenile. You must give him the goods, or he denounces you broadcast, and I am really grateful to the tots of America for their appreciation of what all now agree to be one of the best American plays."

"Human Hearts" comes to the Coyle Theatre, Thursday, January 12.
